One of my custom GPTs was deleted and I didn't do it.

ChatGPT currently doesn't allow its users to export data used for managing and counting custom GPTs. One of the custom built GPTs that I created disappeared from Sourceduty's account. This custom GPT is the first GPT that Sourceduty ever published. The original link doesn't work which was shared on GitHub in November of 2023. This can be proven with GitHub upload records and Sourceduty image records.
